

Virginia Association for the Gifted Parent of the Year Award

The Virginia Association for the Gifted will present an annual “Parent of the Year” award to a parent whose exemplary contribution to gifted education has affected Virginia’s children, teachers, schools, programs, and/or policies. The award will be presented at the annual conference or seminar.

To qualify for the “Parent of the Year” Award, the nominee shall:

- Be a consistent advocate of appropriate programs for gifted students (advocating from the role of a parent);
- Have had an impact on gifted education in the state of Virginia through outstanding leadership and/or creative innovation at either the local affiliate or state levels;
- Be an individual who has harnessed the energy and support of teachers, administrators, and/or other parents for the benefit of gifted students and/or programs;
- Be a VAG member in good standing

The awards committee reserves the right to withdraw an award if nominations submitted do not meet the stated criteria or if a nominee’s achievements, as described, do not meet the intent of the award.
